

[illegible][illegible]

O. H. Haskell has been repairing his house.

Reverell Nevera has moved to the Abbott house for the winter.

Leatie Bennett is visiting friends in Norway, Portland and Boston.

Geo. A. Flint and family of Harrison are visiting his friends in Sweden.

Our farmers are still hauling apples to the depot. Joseph Adams is packing Ben Gibbs' apples.

Harry Bibebe and wife have returned home and Mr. Bibebe has commenced work in the mill. O. H. Haskell is at work for him.

BOLSTERS MILLS.

Edith Turner is at Charles Brett's in Greene.

Leon Wight has moved to the rent in Emily Fernald's house.

Mrs. Mains has been visited by her sister, Mrs. Cole and family of Auburn.

Mrs. O. V. Edwards has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Brown of Norway. She came home the first of the week.

The pulpit was supplied, last Sabbath, by Rev. J. E. Edden of Norway, as our regular pastor was called to attend a funeral.

Next Sabbath our pastor will preach a temperance sermon and there will be a temperance concert in the evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

The closing exercises of the fall term of school taught by A. F. Clark took place at Orange Hall, last Saturday evening. There were dialogues, recitations, songs and fine instrumental music, concluding with a farce.

Our church has been newly painted, money for the same having been secured by a recent entertainment. Two nice new hanging lamps have been added to the church lights. The W. C. T. U. has furnished new singing books for the congregation.

The Bolsters Mills Dramatic Club are soon to play Dot, the Miner's Daughter. The following is the cast of characters:—David Mason, a farmer..... J. P. Briggs Robert Mason, David's son just from college..... Royal Mason, David's son..... Stanley Arthur, a villain..... George B. Haskell George Clifton, a returned Californian..... Parson Swift, an astonished clergyman..... Bill Torry, Fido's confederate..... C. G. Edwards Brewster, police officer..... D. M. Sturt D. M. Sturt, a colored individual..... D. M. Sturt Mrs. Mason, David's wife..... Mrs. V. F. Weston Doctor..... Mrs. A. R. Weston Mrs. Clifton, Geo. Clifton's deserted wife..... Winifred Clifton, Mrs. Clifton's daughter..... Paraph, a lady of color..... Miss L. A. Black Black's maid, Indian and gentleman.

EAST OXFORD.

Vera Berry is very sick.

Rev. J. B. Howard of the village called on friends in this place, Nov. 10th.

C. S. Noble butchered three hogs and beef creature for Solon Dunning, last week.

Charlie Flood has been very sick with miliary fever, the past week. He is a little better at the present writing.

As Chas. Noble and Chester William were turning into F. J. Billings' yard, sat Wednesday, the brace to the wagon wheel broke, throwing them both to the ground. The only damage done was a badly demolished wagon seat. It named both Mr. Noble and Mr. William quite badly.

WEST SUMNER.

Sadie Barrows from South Paris is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Hemmingway.

H. T. Heath and wife are at work at the duckfield in the corn shop, a part of this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lettroy is on the sick at with a bad cold, but seems somewhat better.

Mrs. Geo. Bibebe had a pleasant call on Mrs. America Andrews of North Paris, last Tuesday.

P. W. Ford had an auction, last Saturday, to close out his stock in trade, and moved to West Paris.

Mrs. Chas. Staples of Auburn has visited Mrs. Ruby Harden. Mrs. S. was a relative of Sumner and a friend in girlhood of Mrs. Richmond Tuttle and Mrs. J. Pulsifer, who were pleased to receive calls from her. She had not been the place for over 20 years.

Finish you with your

g Supplies

ices to suit the times, consisting of Fruits, Cranberries, Canned Goods, Mixed Candy for per pound or 4 for your attention to.

IL

in Street, Sign Hamlin & Bicknell.

#7

ou a pair of WOOL BOOTS

are to go quick at that price,

RUBBERS

CENTS.

RE, E. E. SWETT, Manager.

WAY, MAINE.

OODS.

t, this week, a fresh lot of f the latest novelties. New
New JACKETS, THIBET

TAINS.

' CURTAINS, as we closed
prices much less than whole-
benefit. TABLE DAMASK, ERIAL in abundance.

have to offer, and we shall

ndrews

This image shows a vertical strip of a document page. On the left side, there is a dark, textured binding or edge. The main part of the image is a white page with some faint, illegible text and a small, dark, irregular mark near the bottom left corner. The overall appearance is that of a scanned document page.

